Congress program subject to change by the organizer.

7. REVERSE-CHARGE PROCEDURE

In 2010, the EU adopted the reverse-charge mechanism in order to simplify the value-added tax regulations pertaining to cross-border services across Europe. We also apply this procedure to invoices related to the BetonTage congress.

In order for us to send you a VAT-exempt invoice, please make sure that you provide us with your VAT ID number (applies to participants from EU member states only).

Invoice recipients established in countries outside the European Union will need to furnish valid proof of their business status, such as a copy of their excerpt from the commercial register.

8. CANCELLATION

Registrations may be cancelled until 12 January 2012 (date as postmarked) against payment of a cancellation fee of EUR 50.00. Any cancellation submitted after 12 January 2012 (date as postmarked), as well as absence due to illness, shall be subject to payment of the full attendance fee. Any cancellation or change to the registration must be submitted in writing. Upon prior request, a registered attendee may nominate a substitute.

9. ACCOMMODATION

Please contact the hotel of your choice directly to book your accommodation. For a list of hotels, see the program booklet or visit our website at www.betontage.com. We have reserved a number of rooms at special terms under the „BetonTage“ reference. We recommend early booking as the number of rooms is limited.
